Rule on Motions Concerning
Mail Preparation Changes

Docket No. RM2016-6

ORDER HOLDING RULEMAKING IN ABEYANCE

(Issued February 23, 2016)

On February 22, 2016, the Postal Service filed a motion to suspend proceedings in the above-captioned docket.¹ The Postal Service simultaneously filed a motion for reconsideration of Order No. 3047.²

The motion to suspend proceedings is granted, and this rulemaking is held in abeyance pending the Commission's resolution of the Postal Service's motion for reconsideration of Order No. 3047. The Commission will issue an order governing proceedings in the instant docket following its ruling on the motion for reconsideration.

It is ordered:

Docket No. RM2016-6 is held in abeyance consistent with the body of this Order.

By the Commission.
